

From: DO_NOT_REPLY@allacademic.com
Subject: 2016 ATE Annual Conference
Date: August 14, 2015 at 4:32 PM
To: apapke@mail.usf.edu

Dear Allison Papke,

Congratulations! Your proposal, Accountability through Blogging: Developing a Professional Identity in a Clinically-rich Context, has been accepted for presentation at the 96th Annual Conference of the Association of Teacher Educators, February 13-16, 2016, at the Chicago Hilton Hotel. We are very excited about this conference. Some of the featured speakers are Pamela Grossman, Carl Grant, Michael Apple, among others.

You will receive notification of when your presentation is scheduled sometime in late September/early October. All thematic sessions will be scheduled on Sunday thru Tuesday morning. No thematic sessions will be scheduled for Friday or Saturday as those days have been reserved for special workshops and committee meetings. All presenters are required to register for the conference. Registration materials will be available thru the ATE website in September.

Again, congratulations! We look forward to seeing you in Chicago.

John McIntyre
ATE Association Development Specialist
Conference Programming

Sincerely,
ATE