Dear Allison papke,

Congratulations! As President-Elect and Program Chair, I am pleased to invite you to participate in the 2015 Annual Convention of the National Council of Teachers of English, to be held November 19-22, in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Your proposal was selected from more than 1,500 submitted for this year's Convention.

In the coming days, you will receive follow-up messages from our proposal coordinator at the University of Oregon. Please make sure your email system is able to receive messages from ncteannual@ce.uoregon.edu so that you can receive all the important communication between now and the Convention.

The first message will include instructions on accessing a website with information about your participation, including the names of your co-participants and the description of your session. If you submitted more than one proposal, you will need to log into this system to determine which proposal was accepted.

Visit the convention website for information about the 2015 Convention, including hotel reservations and convention registration. If you have specific questions about your proposal(s), you can contact our office at 217-278-3670 or email annual2015@ncte.org.

As you know, our theme in November is "Responsibility, Creativity, and the Arts of Language." Your participation on the program helps articulate the many aspects of this theme. I appreciate your significant contribution to the Convention and look forward to seeing you in Minneapolis.

Sincerely,
Doug Hesse
President-Elect, NCTE
